

- for solar installations
- resistant to glycol, etc.
- does not dry up
- seals immediately

Solar-Fermit is a thread sealing paste which was developed specially for application with solar installations.

Solar-Fermit can be worked easily and quickly and is applied in conjunction with hemp

solar-fermit

Sealing paste for the solar installation

For no-risk use of solar energy in building services installations

 suitable for temperatures up to 160°C

Must not be used for gas and drinking water units in building services installations.

 suitable for pressures up to 15 bar

 suitable for the usual heat transfer media in solar cycles

 the thread sealing paste does not dry up, later mounting or dismounting possible at any time

Technical data:

colour: black
density: 1,25
storage: between -5°C and +35°C